WHY SUPPORTIVE HOUSING WORKS

At Quest Community Development Corporation (QuestCDC), affordable housing is more than a roof over someone's head—it's a pathway to stability, opportunity, and lasting transformation. Located in Atlanta's historic Westside neighborhoods, Ques has spent over two decades using housing as the foundation for rebuilding lives and strengthening communities.

HOUSING THAT HEALS AND LIFTS

Affordable housing works at Quest because it's designed with people at the center. From individuals overcoming homelessness or substance use to veterans, seniors, and working families, our residents are more than clients—they're neighbors and partners in community progress. By reducing the burden of housing costs, individuals can focus on what matters most: securing employment, improving health, reuniting with family, or pursuing education.

INTEGRATED SUPPORT — LASTING IMPACT

What makes Quest's approach unique is our wraparound model. Residents don't just get the keys to a unit—they gain access to a network of services tailored to support long-term success. Our onsite case management, mental health support, workforce development programs, and community engagement efforts all play a role in helping people not just survive — but thrive.

ANCHORING WESTSIDE REVITALIZATION

Affordable housing at QuestCDC is intentionally rooted in the Westside, preserving the legacy of neighborhoods like Vine City, English Avenue, Grove Park, and West Lake. We don't just build structures—we build trust. By partnering with longtime residents, local businesses, and civic organizations, we ensure development doesn't lead to displacement but to collective uplift.

THE QUESTCDC APPROACH

At Quest, affordable housing is just the beginning. Our work is rooted in dignity, stability, and a deep sense of belonging. We don't just build housing—we build with the community, ensuring that every step forward is shaped by those we serve. That's what makes lasting change possible.

HOUSING, SUPPORT, AND COMMUNITY

For some, an affordable place to call home is all they require to create stability in their lives. Others need specific supportive services and assistance with managing their SSI, VA, and other benefits. No matter the need, we help all residents & clients safely thrive in the communities they love.

MEASURABLE RESULTS

- 160 units of affordable and supportive housing developed across Atlanta's Westside — 241 units in production.
- More than 1,100 individuals served annually through housing, case management, and supportive services.
- 93% housing retention rate, a testament to the effectiveness of our holistic support system.
